 - III. Treasurer's Report –
Lori Piscitello reported the account balance is $33,705.79. We have the outstanding expense of about $10,000 for Malley's Chocolates.
 - IV. Principal's Report –
 - Lenten prayers are said every morning.
 - The children are working through their purple book.
 - Having Stations of the Cross and last words of Jesus.
 - There will be a state of the school early May.
 - V. Report of Standing Committees –
 - Sock Hop – Brenda reported that this event and the bingo instants-rama are scheduled for the same date. Moving either of these events was discussed. The first available date to move the Sock Hop to is May 19. Jill is fine with the new date and will check with Holly and Frank, the DJ. Jill will call Mr. Dudek and Brenda once she knows if the new date is possible. A new flyer will have to go home and bingo will pay for the paper.
 - Morning with Mom – Date of this event is May 12.
 - Malley's Easter Candy Sale – Tracy reported that the sale is going well. On line ordering goes through Sunday, April 9. Pick-up will be Tuesday, April 4, 2006 from 5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. The candy will be delivered to the school between 1:30 p.m. and 2:00 p.m. Mickie asked if people are needed to help sort the boxes and it was decided that some help would be needed.
 - Flower/Plant Sale – Brenda reported that Maureen Jamieson is doing the sale. Order forms will be going home. The sale is through Deans. Delivery will be May 4 at 4:00 p.m. Order forms are due on April 13. Pick-up will be May 5. Volunteers will be needed. We hope to make $1,000.
 - Junior High Dance – The dance is this Friday.
 - Cookbook – The cover was passes around for everyone to see.
 - VI. Unfinished Business –
 - Eighth Grade/Laura Polk – Laura passed out information. Brenda reported that the LOFT board revisited the budget, took a vote, and allowed money in the budget for tee shirts with a maximum of $450. Laura thanked the board for this.
 - Local Girl Gallery – Brenda reported that this is a social event – make jewelry, have cheese and wine. The event will be May 4. The actual room is to be determined.
 - On-Line Spirit Wear – Mickie asked about on-line spirit wear. Lori said that Pat will come to the next meeting.
 - VII. New Business – None
 - VIII. Announcements – None
