Please Note . . .

All students are in school for more hours than are required by the State of Ohio.

Please note that for the 2019-2020 school year we are beginning one week later than we have the past several years.

Thanksgiving vacation will be one week – Monday through Friday.

There are only two early dismissals included in the school calendar (Christmas and Easter).

Our Care Program will be available for full day child supervision on many of the days when school is not in session. The schedule of the days that our Care Program will operate will be published in July. This program is available for students in Kindergarten through Eighth Grade.
